SEVENTH STREET IS 36th ANNUAL SEPTEMBER SALE IN CARNIVAL MOVE

Proposal to Celebrate Completion of Paving Meets Enthusiastic Reception.

Seventh street merchants yesterday evinced much interest in the plans of the Mid City Citizens' Association to celebrate the completion of the lighting and paving of Seventh street with a carnival September 27. If the present plans materialize, the celebration probably will eclipse any-thing of the kind attempted in Washingon.

Members of the finance committee, un der Chairman Charles S. Shreve, yesterday inaugurated a campaign to raise a fund of $1,000 or more to defray expenses of the celebration. If enough money is raised the merchants probably will ar-range to have ah industrial and auto parade precede the carnival.

Thomas S. Sergeon, member of the finance committee, last night announced that J. F. White, of the Motor Livery Company, will donate the use of four handsome limousines on the night of the camival. These cars may be used for the conveyance of guests of the Mid City Association. Members of the finance committees will meet Tuesday night in the rooms of
